Hi Everyone!!

We are rolling into October this upcoming week! All of our classes are going great!! We have had quite a few new dancers join GDC in the last few weeks....a BIG WELCOME to all of you!!!

A few reminders and announcements I wanted to highlight:

Dress Code: Dancers are to be in dancewear for every class! Some classes have dress codes (Ballet, Pointe, Combo) so please adhere to those. After telling countless dancers to put on shoes when leaving the studio...only to be told they don't have any....I feel the need to stress that no one should be entering or exiting the studio without shoes on their feet! GDC will not be responsible for the injuries while running barefoot in the parking lot!

Master Class Series: Our Master Class Saturday series is taking a week off.....so no classes next Saturday, October 3rd. Classes will resume on Saturday, October 10th.

Zoom Class: Anyone can watch the class in it's entirety. We only ask that you please log on within the first 10 minutes. Our teachers and their codes are:

Ms. Tena:	Meeting ID: 621 233 5559	Password: dance
Ms. Lindsay:	Meeting ID: 856 204 0708	Password: Lindsay
Ms. Payton:	Meeting ID: 428 133 8831	Password: Payton
Ms. Anna:	Meeting ID: 995 686 7971	Password: xyz5
Ms. Glenda:	Meeting ID: 529 349 8380	Password: msglenda
Ms. Kim:	Meeting ID: 709 426 4853	Password: mskim

Christmas Shows: I know the St. Cloud Art Festival has already been cancelled for this year. We usually have 90% of our classes performing downtown during this event with our Christmas shows...as well as nursing homes and other schools Christmas Programs. I know the nursing homes will not be open to outside entertainment this year either....and pretty sure the high schools will not have programs at this time. BUT, we are performers and this has always been a big show for us so we will be learning short Christmas dances as always and most likely will be performing them for our parents in house (like we did the recitals last year). It will be spaced out over two weeks time to keep crowds down and everyone safe. Great news is classes like tap, pointe and acro who never get to perform downtown, can this year!!! More details coming soon...just didn't want you to be confused when you hear Christmas music in October. There are no costumes associated with this performance, they wear their class dancewear. These are not mandatory performances....and for those on Zoom, you are welcome to perform it in your living rooms for your parents on our performance day!

GDC T-shirts: The new GDC t-shirts are almost ready! The reveal should be soon on the new color for this year. Anyone can purchase a GDC t-shirt for $15 from the office once we receive them.

GDC Online Store: The GDC online merchandise store is OPEN! It will remain open the entire month of October. You make the order online (visit our website www.glendasdance.com, on the home page in the right hand side column, there's a link to the online store)...then on October 30th the store will close and that's when Champion will begin customizing and getting orders ready. They will be shipped to GDC where I will email everyone when they are ready for pickup. Great Christmas gifts!!! For those asking about our duffle bags, jackets, and shoes....this is the place! (NOTE: there are pants for $25 that match the jacket...I don't see them in the store but I just emailed them to fix that....should be available by Monday). As for sizing of the jackets....I will ask some of our LTD dancers to bring a few of theirs in for try-on.
